R. Civ. P. 23(a), and may properly be maintained as a class action on behalf of the Settlement Class under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3); (b) the Settlement Agreement should receive final approval as fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class; (c) an order should be entered granting final approval of the Agreement, entering final judgment and dismissing the Complaint in the above-captioned action with prejudice (“Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement”), consistent with the terms provided for in the Agreement; and (d) the application of Class Counsel for the payment of attorneys’ fees and expenses, and payment to the Class Representatives, is reasonable and should be approved. The Final Approval Hearing may be postponed, adjourned or continued by further order of this Court, without further notice to the Settlement Class and Minor Settlement Subclass.
